CARTER LAKE
 EST. 1930
NEWSLETTER

Goodbye,
 It has truly been an honor to serve as the mayor to the community I was born and raised. When I first put my name in the race for this position: I truly had no idea that the people of this town would elect and support me in this job. It was very surprising to me to see seven-hundred out of one-thousand voters mark my name. I am just a car guy, and I do not know much about government.

Over the past 8 years, remarkable things have happened in Carter Lake. The city added needed infrastructure improvements and financial decisions, community investments and common-sense management that will secure the future of our town over the next 50 years. I have often said my mind is dollar driven and every decision I make must benefit Carter Lake and add value to our community.

I am proud to say, under my watch, the town is in a much better place. We have 8 years of balanced budgets with cash reserves and community partnerships and investments that help offset tax increases, for which any town our size would kill for. We have a working relationship with all local businesses and the surrounding communities that most would not expect from a small town. My motto was simply to tell the businesses and developers what they can do. Potential new businesses and developers do not want to be told what they cannot do. This minor change has helped our community grow and attract development.

Recently, the city council changed the dynamics of the city operations and brought in a full-time administrator, taking away the duties of the mayor’s office. Today, any interested person wanting to invest in our town will go to this new person, with limited knowledge of our operations and history. One of my biggest strengths was my family’s 60 years of relationships with the people and in promoting development and getting things done.

I want to congratulate Jason as the new Mayor and wish him the best. I know he can do an excellent job.

The town just lost a good man and one of my great friend’s, Emil Hausner. He served as a council member and as Mayor. He was always kind and had a deep passion for this community. Emil will be missed.

*Merry Christmas and have a Happy New Year
 Mayor Ron Cumberledge*
